CHURCH TAXATION.

(By T. C. Jefferies.)

In all the United States there is not a question of more importance than the taxation of church property. The only property that should rightfully be exempt is property which is owned and enjoyed by the people as a whole, and not enjoyed by merely a fanatical few. Of course, some will say "Why, goodness me, our church is always open to everybody; if you care to go you will surely be made welcome; you may enjoy it, too, if you wish."

True, by compromising with one's self and chloroforming one's senses, one may, if he wishes, step inside and hear meaningless words rattle around in the head of a parson. But if you do not want to adopt Christian standards and methods, but rather want to be square with yourself and keep right with your intelligence, then you cannot enjoy the "blessings." In order to enjoy a church, too great a personal sacrifice is entailed. Thoughtful people realize this; the thoughtless do not care, it is the staggy show they are after. At church Mr. Smith gets a chance to associate with Mr. Jones, his employer, and he thinks his employer will henceforth think him overweight; Mrs. Smith talks with Mrs. Jones, her husband's employer's wife, and endeavors to appear like the real thing in the latter's eyes. And the whole outfit deceive themselves into thinking it is the one real way to get in with the nice people of the community. Few of the thinking people of any community fill out the pledge slips of help to pile up the contribution plate.

If certain property wrongfully and unjustly escapes taxation, it must necessarily follow that the taxed property wrongfully and unjustly pays more than its proper proportion in order to make up for that which escapes. When we consider this, we realize the full importance of this question and its vital concern to every citizen. Cleveland, O.

BILL'S AVENUE makes you cheerful and thoughtful. It is a personal department in the WHEEL OF LIFE that grows on you. You find yourself waiting with interest for what "Bill" has to say next.

"AN AMERICAN MADONNA" is a serial running in the WHEEL OF LIFE. It is written by Mary Ives Todd, the ablest writer of Liberal fiction since Grant Allen, and is a beautiful presentation of the essentially modern problem of the Woman in Business.

THE WHEEL OF LIFE. A monthly periodical. It deals with ORIGINS, the origin of Marriage, of Ethics, of Religion, of Brotherhood, of the belief in Immortality. It treats broadly of Love, of Human Instincts and Ideals. It takes in the whole Wheel of Life, treating all subjects in such a clear, plain and spicy way that the dust is shaken out and they become as interesting as a novel to even the casual reader. Send 10 cents for a six months' trial subscription or a quarter for a year.

"CONFESSIONS OF A DRONE" by Joseph Medill Patterson, author of "A LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RICH," sent without extra charge with a 6 months' trial subscription to the WHEEL OF LIFE. Address LIFE PUB. CO., Desk A, St. Louis, Mo.
